

The Devil & I

When I was a young girl
I awoke to the sound of your voice
The echoes called me through the halls
I believed I had no choice

A man so strong
With a fire in his eyes
He lead the way and I followed
He took me to his light

When I was a young girl
The devil took a shine to me
Held me to his side
Said he would die for me

When we were married
I stole and I killed for him
I muddied my soul for him
We found our glory in sin

When I was a young girl
The devil took a shine to me
Held me to his side
Said he would die for me

I can decieve him
He said his life was mine
So I pressed my lips to his lips
One last time
I took a sword from his own side

The devil said he'd die for me
And now the blood flows from his chest
Tears stream down his face for me
And he'll die like the rest

When I was a young girl
The devil took a shine to me
Held me to his side
Never thought he'd die for me

Our land is one of days gone by
There's no more of him and I
He said I'd never get to heaven
But I sure as hell will try.

© Laura-Beth Salter, released on
'Breathe', LBSHEE01, 2013.